

We Claim:

1. A method for treating a person suffering from retinal edema or non-proliferative diabetic retinopathy which comprises, administering an effective amount of 5 a formulation free of classical preservatives and comprising a glucocorticoid.

2. The method of Claim 1 wherein the formulation further comprises an effective amount of anecortave acetate.